

Mr. Hans Heinemann

Dear Mr. Heinemann:

I appreciate your good letter of May 8 enclosing your impressions and those of Mrs. Heinemann on your recent European trip. I have taken the liberty of furnishing these observations to some of our interested specialists here.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to join you for lunch on the 23rd of May as my schedule calls for me to be out of town that day. Perhaps you can give me a telephone call some other time when you are in Washington.

Faithfully yours,

Signed

Dear Mr. Dulles,

I find it hard to believe that it has been five years since you,  and I sat down to lunch at Brookings.

STAT

On my return from Europe, I read your speech to the Chamber of Commerce which helped to put everything I saw on our two month trip into focus. My wife and I have written some notes on our impressions, a copy of which I enclose.

I would very much like to see you again and wonder if you would lunch with me at Brookings on the 23rd of May.

Sincerely,
